

One for all

Lyrics: Claudia Nieuwenhuisen

A thunderbolt from a clear sky
And your world seems to stop so suddenly
A hundred thousand questions appear
How can you move on from here
I know your fear and also your doubts
Your nightmares and your pain
Just know that I am here right by you so that you will never be alone

Because the walk of life gives you hope again
On this road, you'll never walk alone
Because the walk of life gives you hope again
One for all and all for one.

A thunderbolt clear from heaven
Suddenly, your world turns on it's head
And though you fight despair with courage
Keep believing, don't be afraid
Take my hand, I'm there beside you
Every step on this dark road
Together we'll go into battle and win this fight

Because the walk of life gives you hope again
On this road, you'll never walk alone
Because the walk of life gives you hope again
One for all and all for one.

In these dark times, we will fight together
Because I don't want to lose you and we will battle through
The fear, the pain and although you feel small
Together, we will pull through, and I know it for sure
Because every step forwards is one more. Come on!
Let yourself be heard, shout it from the rooftops
We're going to win and triumph so we sing together....

One for all and all for one.

Because the walk of life gives you hope again
On this road, you'll never walk alone
Because the walk of life gives you hope again
One for all and all for one.
One for all and all for one.
